Don't listen to the voices of a world caught up in fear, for the Word of God proclaims the victory. He gives His children courage to confront the gates of hell, with the sword that conquers ev'ry enemy. His Word will stand, though stars should fall and mountains turn to sand. Though no man believes Him, still God will be true His promise is sure, His love will endure, and forever His Word will stand. Forever and forever, yes, forever His Word will stand!*
