Q. 57. Which is the fourth commandment?
A. The fourth commandment is, Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Q. 58. What is required in the fourth commandment?
A. The fourth commandment requireth the keeping holy to God such set times as he hath appointed in his Word; expressly one whole day in seven, to be a holy Sabbath to himself.

Q. 59. Which day of the seven hath God appointed to be the weekly Sabbath?
A. From the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ, God appointed the seventh day of the week to be the weekly Sabbath; and the first day of the week ever since, to continue to the end of the world, which is the Christian Sabbath.

True sunlight of ev’ry soul, Surround us as we go; So shall our way be safe, Our feet no straying know. Lord, be Thy word my rule; In it may I rejoice. Thy glory be my aim, Thy holy will my choice, Thy promises my hope, Thy providence my guard, Thine arm my strong support, Thyself the great reward. Great love of God, come in! O spring of lasting peace, O living water, come, Spring up and never cease. O love of the living God, Of Father and of Son, Love of the Holy Ghost, Make now our hearts as one.*
