Deacon of the Week – Don Henle

Thoughts upon entering the Sanctuary: “The heart is the seat of humility. The seat of humility is not to be found in our face, talk, or dress, but in the heart. It is also not solely and essentially to be found in the intellect, even though the intellect is functional in the exercise of humility in knowing the nature and beauty of this virtue and presenting it to the will as such. Instead, essential function of humility is in the will which embraces, loves, and delights itself in this virtue. We are to be like Jesus, that is, ‘lowly in heart’ (Mt. 11:29).”

*The Invocation & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever, Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith: Heidelberg Catechism: Q & A 1 & 2

1. Q. What is your only comfort in life and death? A. That I am not my own, but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with His precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil. He also preserves me in such a way that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, all things must work together for my salvation. Therefore, by His Holy Spirit He also assures me of eternal life and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for Him.
2. Q. What do you need to know in order to live and die in the joy of this comfort? A. First, how great my sins and misery are; second, how I am delivered from all my sins and misery; third, how I am to be thankful to God for such deliverance.

*The Gloria Patri Trinity Hymnal p. 735
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

The Offertory “Calvary's Mountain” K. Lee Scott
Jesus died on Calvary's mountain, long time ago, and salvation's rolling fountain now freely flows. Once his voice in tones of pity melted in woe, and he wept o'er Judah's city long time ago. On his head the dew of midnight fell, long ago; now a crown of dazzling sunlight sits on his brow. Jesus died yet lives forever, no more to die. Bleeding Jesus, blessed Savior, now reigns on high. Children, let your lights be burning in hope of heav'n, waiting for the Lord's returning at dawn or ev'n. When he comes, a voice from heaven shall pierce the tomb, "Come, ye blessed of my Father: children, come home.
